1. Aries (March 21 - April 20)

Hot and fiery, you always like to be at the head of things

Ruled by Mars

A Masculine Positive Cardinal Fire sign

Polar or Opposite sign: Libra

1.1. Color - Shades of Red

1.2. You as a man:

- You are a picture of passionate ardour one minute, and are as icy as a polar bear the next. When it comes to love, your heedless attitude is absolutely amazing. You plunge into an affair, positive that this is the only true love ever known by any two people ever born. When it breaks in half, you will pick up the pieces, and try every angle you can think of to salvage the dead romance.
- You are a natural rebel. You demand the same fierce loyalty that you give, in both love and friendship. You want your woman to be completely independent, yet stay a few paces behind.

1.3. You as a woman:

- You will open your own doors. You are rather a pushover for flattery, if it has an honest base. Your loyalty in love is gigantic, as long as the sentiment remains. You are generous to a fault with your time and sympathy. But when it comes to love, you are downright stingy.
- You think love is equal sharing. You admire strength and try to imitate it. You will throw away fame or fortune defiantly in the face of anyone who hurts a friend of yours.
- You can be unreasonably temperamental, and create some violent scenes. But you never hold a grudge, seek revenge, and indulge in self-pity or bitterness.

1.4. Your Love Sign

Your love sign is Scorpio

- You love the chase and will do whatever it takes to get the prize you desire. But you will wonder if the prize is worth keeping. You will take risks during the chase and would love your beloved to do the same. This give and take adds sparks to your relationship. A mental attraction for you is often the first step and the indicator as to whether things will progress. You love being told you are the best

1.5. You in Relationships

- You are demanding and passionate, and need an equally self-possessed lover to stimulate you. You can be fiercely loyal, yet self-centered at the same time. So your partner needs to exhibit confidence and know when to give you your space. The occasional bouts of temper exhibited by you are best dealt with if they are used as a prelude to a deeper understanding. You will stick with a relationship as long as it's hot, but if things start to cool down, it won't be long before you hit the road. The ideal Aries soul mate may be someone who is never dull.

1.6. One must Know the rules when dealing with Aries

1.6.1. What you should do:

- Meet the Aries eye to eye. The Ram likes to make eye contact, and what do you know, he will notice the new outfit in the process
- Be prepared for anything. Your Aries lover will serenade you in true Romeo fashion, and ask you to bungee jump with him the next day.
- Be bold. No coyness for the Aries lover. Your free, independent spirit will be appreciated, so have fun!
- Expect a lot of fun along the way. Your Aries lover will play a practical joke on you just as you are out of bed, and surprise you with floral bouquets.
- Bask in the glory of your Aries lover's passion.

1.6.2. What you should not do:

- Don't be too possessive. Rest assured, your Aries lover will be faithful, but if you attempt to stifle his freedom, he will slip out of your grasp.
- Don't try to get his attention by flirting with other men. Don't talk about ex-flames, either. Your Aries man will have a roving eye, but he belongs to you. Stooping down will only send him packing.
- Don't be too critical of his friends. Give him the space he needs.
- Don't dampen your Aries lover's enthusiasm. He is exuberant, and you have to pretend to cruise along, even if you are not interested. What is a little play-acting to make sure that your Aries man stays with you?
- Don't play hard to get. This could prove fatal, as the Aries man will take it for rejection and go away.

1.7. Beautiful You

- You are a trendsetter, mind you. Your greatest pleasure lies in people taking note of the clothes you wear. And if they wish their wardrobe could get better than yours, even better. You were probably the first one to try the new-length mini skirt. You like perfumes with florid, heady undertones, and you should call attention to your piercing eyes with bold shadow choices and well-groomed brows.
- You are game for anything new, but you have your set choices. Your sexy, red lipstick probably has a place of honour in your purse. And yes, the more vibrant the reds are, the better. No muted shades for you! You are comfortable with starting off things, but never get down to finishing them. You probably bought a new jar of fairness cream, and soon forgot all about it. Last season's discarded colors and half-used lotions pile up beneath your sink and clutter up your vanity.
- Although potions you love certainly help you shine, your true beauty comes from your spontaneity and willingness to experiment. You have your best foot forward all the time. This runs color up your cheeks, and is one blush make-up cannot achieve!

1.8. Lucky Gem

- This glittering coral is your stone. It will give you all the courage you need! The stone could also make you rich. You can be assured of a comfortable future.

1.9. Lucky Number

- See what magic number 14 can bring into your life

1.10. Lucky Color

- Revel in the magic of peacock blue!

1.11. Lucky Day

- Strike gold on Tuesday!

1.12. Careers and you

- You are competitive and love the game, whether it's business or life. You hate to lose, which means you will probably win. You like being the leader - you like to start projects and blaze the trail for colleagues. You are considerate of your colleagues and display enthusiasm and courage in the workplace. One thing you crave is adventure. Preachy staff meetings are a snore, since you would much rather be out in the field closing a key client. New challenges need to come at a fast and furious pace for you.

1.13. Aries Career Guide

Here are some occupations that an Aries might consider:

- Dentist
- Director
- EMT
- Entertainer
- Entrepreneur
- Landlord
- Lawyer
- Make-up artist
- Optometrist
- Producer
- Sports person
- Stock broker

1.14. Money and you

- You are gutsy and spirited, the go-getter of the zodiac. You like to hog the limelight and win! This quality might get you into a financial tight spot but invariably you manage to wriggle out of it. Very often, money to you is nothing more than the "currency" which will enable you to get what you want. Are you security conscious? You are not keen on the idea of a nest-egg. You live for the moment and do not believe in saving for a rainy day. You are also messy with repaying loans. The flip side of this is that if you have a couple of bucks on hand, you'd be more than happy to lend them.

2. Taurus (April 21 - May 21)

Stubborn and dependable, you are blessed with a bullish steadiness, which is your very own.

Ruled by Venus

A Feminine Negative Fixed Earth Sign

Polar or Opposite Sign: Scorpio

2.1. Color: Shades of verdant green

2.2. You as a man:

- You can be a tender, gentle and protective lover. Your sentimental gestures and pleasantly earthy wooing can be just as satisfying as the soulful, poetic sighs of more colorful lovers.
- You're extremely patient, but are not willing to waste an entire lifetime on a lost cause. You are kind, gentle and truly tolerant. You'll do anything in the world for the woman you love except allow her to wear the pants. Your financial affairs are usually secure. Few of you will fail to accumulate at least security, if not wealth.

2.3. You as a woman:

- You have more moral and emotional courage than many a tough male, but you have enough confidence in your own sex to let your man be the boss.
- When you run across someone you dislike, you don't start a big campaign to destroy him. You show frigid indifference to your enemies, but if you count someone as a friend, you'll be loyal through all ups and downs. Your perspective normally remains straight and true, with no twists and turns. You can be a tower of strength. You're seldom demanding, except in the area of loyalty, and your disposition is generally even, down-to-earth and pleasant.

2.4. Your Love Sign

Your love sign is Cancer

- Sweetness is your best recipe. You are extremely responsive, and if a tender glance comes with champagne and roses, the better. You value material pleasures, and would live to share them with your lover. Security and possessions are important to you, and someone who provides these things will quickly make it to the top of your list.

2.5. You in Relationships

- You are committed, and make a wonderful partner. You take your time, and a slow and steady courtship is more your style. This quality alone is enough to win people over. You enjoy a close relationship, and the affection and intimacy this provides. You are also strong enough to be the power in a relationship. You do love being pampered, and regular gifts will keep you interested.

2.6. One must Know the rules when dealing with Taurus

2.6.1. What you should do:

- Perfect the art of whipping up a gourmet meal. And top it with candlelight and romantic music.
- Share quality time with your Taurus. Five-minute meetings when you have something else in mind will not work. When you give time to the Taurus, give all of it.
- Be assured of a shoulder to cry on. The Taurus will support you through thick and thin, no matter what.
- Be generous with compliments. Your Taurus loves being appreciated and noticed, and all it takes is some of your time!
- Learn to be patient. There are times when the bull will let off steam, and target everything in his path, which includes you. Wait for the storm to blow over.

2.6.2. What you should not do:

- Try not to be unpredictable. The Bull loves stability in life, and any attempt to upset the apple cart will only send him scurrying.
- Don't push your opinions on your Taurus lover. The Bull loves being in charge of a situation, don't deprive him of the feeling.
- Don't be frivolous. The Taurus prefers a steady relationship. If you don't want to carry on, say so. Don't break hearts.
- Suggesting a financial plan to a Taurus can be sacrilege. The Bull loves to have total control of the money, so keep your suggestions to yourself.
- Don't push for an answer early on. Taurus likes to take his time, so wait for the right time.
- Beautiful You
- Ever wondered how beauty is not always make-up dependent? Well, rejoice, that is the kind of beauty you are blessed with! Stop thinking of yourself as a stuffy old bull. Subtlety is your greatest strength, and this is the greatest head-turner!
- Your dressing table is never cluttered. You don't scurry to buy the latest shade of lipstick. A trusted brand name is what you prefer, and you would probably stick with a brand for ages. Though you are simple, you always have a trick up your sleeve. This is why you always manage to look beautiful.
- With your steady gaze and flawless complexion, you should grow out your natural curls rather than force them straight, or keep your nails trimmed short if you just know long and sexy won't work for you. You adore the small, sensual pleasures of beauty -- sensual fabrics, natural, revitalizing skin creams and perfume with a woodsy, balsamic scent.
- You prefer your hair flowing naturally over your shoulder or a loose tendril falling across your forehead. It's through these tiny but generous gestures of understated femininity that you as a Taurus assert your beauty.

2.7. Lucky Gem

- You love the real thing, and wearing a diamond can bring you wealth. What you don't know is that it can make you a better person!

2.8. Lucky Number

- Number 3 is what you should rely on for good fortune!

2.9. Lucky Color

- Lotus pink will do you a world of good.

2.10. Lucky Day

- Monday is the day of new beginnings!

2.11. Careers and you

- You are reliable and loyal, easy to get along with and a good team player. You are also practical and grounded, as befits an Earth Sign. You are the Mr.-Fix-It of the zodiac. You can be a bit lazy to get going, but once you are up and running, look out! There's a focus and single-mindedness of purpose there that can come in very handy. You can be strong-willed, so it's a good idea for colleagues to lay down the law first - you will follow their lead and work hard. While you can do well in business, an artistic streak is also present. More apparent, though, can be your frequent stubborn streaks, which can defeat a lot of hard work. And that temper! It's mercifully swift. If you can keep your focus on the steady accumulation of material goods and an occasional dose of earthy, sensual pleasures, life will be grand.

2.12. Taurus Career Guide

Here are some occupations that a Taurean might consider:

- Advertising director
- Antique dealer
- Business person
- Cashier
- Clothing designer
- Financial advisor
- Florist
- Patron of the arts
- Perfumer
- Real estate agent
- Singer
- Venture capitalist
- Woodworker

2.13. Money and you

- You are one of the Zodiac's great providers. You are terrific with money, probably because you value it so much. You don't mind slogging for the good things in life. Of course, you do value the simple things in life like a sunset, a juicy grapefruit or a good book. As an Earth Sign, you also enjoy owning a piece of land, so real estate makes for a particularly attractive investment. You love everything about money -- its color, feel, and smell -- and also feel entitled to it! This comfort level around money makes you very good with it. You never make rash financial decisions that will cause you to lose your treasure trove. You are a master at making deliberate decisions where money is concerned, which means that bills will be paid on time and accounts are always in order.

3. Gemini (May 22 - June 21)

From patient to strident in a flash! Who can predict the kind of person you are?

Ruled by Mercury

A Masculine Positive Mutable Air Sign

Polar or opposite sign: Sagittarius

3.1. Color: Yellow or Gold

3.2. You as a man:

- Being in love gives you a nice sense of warm security. There's that heavenly comfort of always knowing someone is going to be there. All the doubts you knew before just melt away.
- You like people. The more the merrier. You can convince people that you are an exciting, interesting and intelligent man. You will not remain tomorrow what you are today, nor will you have any lasting memory of yesterday. In one way or another, you will change. Loving you is easy and fun, but you like to keep a distance. There's an inner core that belongs only to you, that you'll never share with another human being.

3.3. You as a woman:

- Your Gemini mind is always traveling, and you match it with a ready wit. Your active imagination can create many fantasies, but it is difficult for you to commit to one person at a time.
- You love the thrill of a gamble, all in the interests of future security. Your astute business sense will stand you in good stead. You are a stimulating companion, and will satisfy your man's emotional and intellectual cravings. You are also ready with the sympathy, when life has been particularly rough.
- You have a hard head, but your dreamy eyes carry a promise of the future.

3.4. Your Love Sign

Your love sign is Leo

- A love affair with you needs great stamina, and is a race to the finish. You are funny and love to play those little tricks that make a relationship with you fun. You have an active mind, which can sometimes lead to a short attention span. The best way to keep you around and aroused is through mental stimulation. You also value adventure and travel, so a certain casual attitude will help the romance bloom. Your duality allows you to see both sides of an issue. You also feel especially connected to those who can help you feel, since you spend so much of your time thinking.

3.5. You in Relationships

- A relationship with you is certainly never boring. You want a mentally stimulating partner, who should match you in your zest for life. You love to dazzle with your intelligence and quick wit. Jealous lovers will find themselves tested by your magnetism, and you do love testing your beloved to see if they are true. You need to be loved and yet need space, and the one person who can give both to you wins hands down.

3.6. One must Know the rules when dealing with Gemini

3.6.1. What you should do:

- Be open. Your Gemini partner will play the field. Some light-hearted flirting will be part of the relationship. Don't throw a tantrum. You can be assured of his loyalty.
- Brush up on your general knowledge. The Gemini loves to talk, and if you are well informed, good for you!
- Be prepared to run the race. The Gemini loves action; so if you are left behind, consider being left out.
- Enjoy flirting with the Gemini man in your life.
- Make personal space the operative word in your relationship.

3.6.2. What you should not do:

- Don't expect your Gemini to stop playing the field. That will be the end of the relationship
- Fumble for words all the time. The Gemini cannot stand poorly informed people.
- Don't intrude into every hour of the Gemini's life. Your Gemini lover needs freedom to think and introspect.
- Don't hold on, once the Gemini gets tired of the relationship. He will slip through your fingers like the wind.
- Don't be too surprised at the way in which the Gemini expresses his love. What do you know, you will find love notes tucked into your pillow one morning, and be greeted by a cold, icy stare the next.

3.7. Beautiful You

- Wit and charm - the two most important ingredients of your beauty. An unruly tendril could not bother you, as you are more concerned about who will sign the next peace treaty.
- Well, you do have a way of moving your hands in the most rhythmic fashion as you speak. Have you ever noticed how people's eyes follow your hands around? Just don't let your chipped nail show, and a manicure will set things right in a jiffy. And yes, use good lip colors, for your mouth will be under constant scrutiny for pearls of wisdom!
- But it is your power of thinking that wins hands down. Calm the hyperactive mind with a lavender-tinged perfume and make-up in shades of pinks and light blues. You are not partial to color. 8.11. Lucky Day

- Sudden windfall on Sunday!

8.12. Careers and you

- Intense and passionate, you know how to live life to the fullest, and as a result, don't suffer fools gladly. You know how to zero in on important tasks, and where the art of the deal is concerned, can go for the kill. Rarely, however, will blood be spilled. You are a straight shooter with lofty and important goals. Everyone else falls by the wayside. One of your greatest assets is the ability to effect change, if only by sheer will. It's when this virtue spills over into impatience that the trouble begins. You love to create, solve and manage -- both the good and the bad. It's all for a reason. You also like to win. As long as you can control your aggressive, vindictive and inflexible tendencies (and the need to control in general), much can be accomplished.

8.13. Scorpio Career Guide

Here are some occupations that a Scorpio might consider:

- Analyst
- Criminologist
- Detective
- Doctor
- Enforcer
- Hypnotist
- Insurance agent
- Investigator
- Lab technician
- Private investigator
- Psychiatrist
- Psychologist
- Researcher
- Scientist

8.14. Money and you

- You are, in a word, wise where money is concerned. You are self-made, although a surprising number of you inherit wealth. It's easy to see that you desperately crave for money. Money buys you security, freedom, and, best of all, control. An unshakable conviction that you will come out on top where finances are concerned motivates you to work harder, no matter how long or how tough. You are more than willing to make sacrifices for the grand prize. If there are reversals, you will generally suffer them well, thanks to your quiet confidence. When the going is good, though, you will remember your friends with uncommon generosity and are quick to support favourite charities. In the end, you far prefer to accumulate money rather than spend it. And you hate wasting it! Even so, there are times when nothing less than a Ming vase will do. Go figure!

When you can take a break from shooting verbal arrows,

Ruled by Jupiter

A Masculine Positive Mutable Fire Sign

Polar or opposite sign: Gemini

9.1. Color: Dark blue and purple

9.2. You as a man:

- You are a dreamer, and make a feeble attempt to get down to reality. Your soaring imagination can cause you to fall down or go bust. But wonderfully, Lady Luck has a way of rescuing you just in time.
- You are never in a relationship for keeps. Women often misinterpret your attitude, and think the relationship is more serious than it really is. You are a flirt, that can't be denied, but you are not looking for sex alone. You like variety and mental stimulation.
- You have no sense of attachment, and have no qualms in breaking free. You enjoy being with older children. Youthful escapades will amuse you rather than anger you, but your very tolerance might keep your children in line.

9.3. You as a woman:

- You see the world as it is, even through rose-tinted glasses. You tend to dream some big dreams, and sometimes, reality never hits you.
- You are very independent, and have a strange aloofness to family ties. You love the feeling of protection, but do not enjoy being bossed around. You are breezy and unconventional in your relationships with men. But you are a trusting child at heart.
- Your moods can be terrible, but they are rare, and they last so briefly they will hardly be noticed. When you are really hurt, your tongue can be bitterly sarcastic.

9.4. Your Love Sign

- Your love sign is Pisces
- The game of love is a straight ahead affair for the Archer, one where the rules are laid down from the start. A good time is important to Sagittarians, so playful dates will be the right appetizer for this zesty lover. Those born under this sign are intuitive, and as a result, have a good sense of what and who they want. The one lucky enough to get in their sights is in for a wild time! Possibly the sexiest part of the game for the Archer is maintaining a sense of independence in the face of a blooming relationship -- there is nothing sexier for these folk. One possible exception might be honesty, which is often why a Sagittarian lover is also a best friend.

9.5. You in Relationships

- Mental fireworks will surely fly in a relationship with the Archer, for nothing seems worthwhile without them. This eagerness to learn can make for one very curious lover. Sagittarians love the idea of a companion, a friend/partner who can share in their quest for truth and knowledge. This relationship will be active and spirited, filled with adventures to faraway lands, as well as exotic fantasies in the bedroom. Traveling has never been more fun than with the Archer! This enthusiasm comes with a keen sense of loyalty for a deserving partner, but the Sagittarian's lover must be careful not to make the mistake of becoming boring or possessive. If so, they'll be vanquished from the lair (minor rifts, though, are gladly patched up in bed). The ideal Sagittarius soul mate is well-read on everything from Philosophy to Sex, and is not afraid to practice what they preach

9.6. One must Know the rules when dealing with Sagittarius

9.6.1. What you should do:

- Say to yourself that life is beautiful, all the time. The Archer hates to be morose.
- Make personal space an important part of your relationship. The Archer craves freedom.
- Be all ears. The Sagittarian needs to know that there is a shoulder to cry on, when he needs it.
- Be prepared to pack your bags at a moment's notice. With the Sagittarian love for travel, you never know where you will be whisked off to!
- Develop a good sense of humour, and appreciate the value of a good joke.

9.6.2. What you should not do:

- Don't sulk too often. The Sagittarian loves a sunny personality, and may not take too kindly to a morose you.
- The Sagittarian hates to hear he is wrong, so reserve your judgment.
- Don't be in a hurry. The Sagittarian likes to take time with the relationship.
- Don't frown on the Sagittarian love for taking chances. Sometimes, your Sagittarian lover will toss a coin on the gift he should buy you!
- Don't expect the Sagittarian to be by your side very often. The sign loves to travel, and may take off on flights of fancy anytime!

9.7. Beautiful You

- Face it - cosmetics are not your best friend. You don't race to buy the newest beauty item off the shelf. Since you are always on the move, a basic sun block and lip balm should take you far. Add a little essential oil, and you are ready to brave the elements!
- But you do need a little pampering, right? When you feel the need to look pretty, enhance your honest eyes. Your comfort level with people adds to your charm. Bare your midriff if possible or hang your pants low on your hips -- Sagittarius rules this area of the body, so you should show it off. Your beauty comes from your sense of adventure and your infectious sense of humour. You are at your most beautiful when you grab life with both hands, and your enthusiasm rejuvenates those around you.

9.8. Lucky Gem

- Well, you had better not be surprised at the few extra rupees in your pocket, for the yellow sapphire will assure you instant windfall all the time!

9.12. Careers and you

You are also passionate about what you believe in and, as befits a Fire Sign, will work doggedly on your causes. You are positive and optimistic and can do wonders with something you believe in, which makes you ideal for turnaround or public service situations. You also need freedom and plenty of room to roam. While you love to philosophies, you also like to hit the road, visiting exciting lands filled with exotic strangers.

9.14. Money and you

- You are the luckiest Sign of the Zodiac. You love to plan ahead. It's a favourite pastime, since you always see the bright side of things. You also love to party and see the world, ever searching, scheming, and dreaming about the opportunity of a lifetime. Make that the adventure of a lifetime! You never worry about money, either, since that won't make for more. It's your sunny disposition that helps you reap dividends. You also love to nurse the notion that your "horse will come in," a feeling which feeds your gambling and risk-taking spirit. You are generous to a fault and are eager to spread the wealth around. You are fairly good at handling money, although you would rather be working on the next big deal. You also love to lend, especially to friends, and the borrower will often find that these loans have been turned into gifts.

10.3. You as a woman:

10.5. You in relationships

- Where the 'us' thing is concerned, you keep the ground rules pretty simple: Those with money, power and the trappings of success should step up to the plate. A bit of solidity, along with excitement and passion, is just the right mix

The Water Bearer always thinks fifty years ahead in time!

Ruled by Uranus

A Masculine Positive Fixed Air Sign.

Polar or opposite sign: Leo

11.1. Color: All the colors of the rainbow

11.2. You as a man:

- It is difficult to pin you down to a commitment. You are friends with the whole world, and falling in love is difficult for you. You are also secretive. You do not want to reveal your true feelings, though you delve deep into others' minds. You are a typical group person. Teamwork comes to you naturally. You do not favour one particular person. Your love of people is impersonal, and you bestow equal attention on all people.
- You follow the watchword "change" with sanctity. You are game to trying something new, even if it creates controversy. You do not compromise on your principles, if the situation demands it.

11.3. You as a woman:

- You are a bundle of contradictions, and the same attitude prevails in love. You are faithful in love, but you can also be detached and aloof, if need be. Your demand for freedom is insistent, but your allegiance to anyone who can accept romance within limits is boundless.
- You have charming manners, and usually behave in a timid, almost reserved way. You loathe being logical. Your mind travels back and forth between today and tomorrow, with no logical pattern. You follow the same policy with commitment.
- The line between friendship and love is often invisible to you. You are susceptible to sudden flashes of inspiration, and your intuition is remarkable.

11.4. Your Love Sign

Your love sign is Gemini

- Courtship for you begins in a group setting. Once you zero in on a target, though, an offbeat and zany romance is likely to ensue. Your mind also has a great facility for creative and imaginative play. It is safe to say that a partner who appreciates your quirks is the best bet. Since you will keep some secrets just that, a lover who can gently draw them out will create a romance dance that goes on and on and on.

11.5. You in relationships

- You love to give pleasure, in keeping with your altruistic and philanthropic spirit. You also tend to seek agreement in your friendly and harmonious way, a real boon in the give and take of partnership. You also adore vulnerability in a lover. You need a companion who can help you get in touch with your innermost feelings and teach you to put the analyzing aside.

11.6. One must Know the rules when dealing with Aquarius

11.6.1. What you should do:

- Be prepared to talk about anything, from the coup in Maui to the burnt dinner last night. The Aquarian has a wide variety of interests, and will want to talk about them all the time.
- Give your Aquarian little surprises. They will love it.
- Be prepared for emotional detachment, at least the first few times you meet.
- Learn to make a mind connection, before a physical one. Intellectual compatibility is important to an Aquarian.
- Appreciate the fact that your Aquarian is devoted to special causes.

11.6.2. What you should not do:

- Don't be too demanding. The Aquarian hates being bound by rules. Give some breathing space to the relationship.
- Don't expect your Aquarius to pop the question in the fifth date. The Aquarian thinks of the whole world as his friend.
- Don't expect the Aquarian to snap out of a reverie soon enough.
- Don't be too critical of the Aquarian dress sense.
- Don't try to change the Aquarian mind in a hurry. Give him some credit for his thinking.

11.7. Beautiful you

- You are a shimmering vision, if your awkwardness can be ignored. You do not waste much time being your own best friend. After all, there is a world out there waiting to be loved! You like to look natural, but a little indulgence gets the better of you from time to time. You have a fetish for anything new. And if it is natural, still better! No product in the market can escape your scrutiny, since you are always looking for something new.
- You do love yourself, but you always wonder if you are good looking. Your self-esteem needs a boost. Remember, the secret of looking good is making the best of what you have. The first flush of romance or triumph adds more color to your cheeks than any shimmering powder!
- No fashion trends for you! All beauty standards are your own. Your independence and love for life make you look good all the time. Your beauty is not of this world -- it's out of it.

11.8. Lucky Gem

You care so deeply about your fellow man that the quest for knowledge and answers is never-ending. You enjoy a challenge whether it's a team meeting or a battle of bantering wits. You have strong beliefs -- you've spent plenty of time thinking about them -- and are bound to get the job done. You spend countless hours mulling over the possibilities for a project and may even come up with some startling conclusions, but it's all in a day's work. And it's never boring! A dull day is a nightmare for you.

11.13. Aquarius Career Guide

Here are some occupations that an Aquarian might consider:

- Adventure travel guide

11.14. Money and you

- You are the true genius of the zodiac. With a quicksilver mind, you could succeed at anything- you just have to apply your mind to it. Off course, you will be more preoccupied with your lofty new ideas. You may appear distracted but that's only because you are living inside your head, a place where the wheels are spinning away. You are logical, love to think, and enjoy helping others, especially via charities and your pet causes. Money, for better or for worse, is not at the top of your list. To you, money is a means to an end -- like saving the planet! Futurists that you are, you enjoy the novel nature of bartering as well as the more progressive concept of equal wage earner couples. You are loathe to borrow, and if you lend, you expect to be paid on time.

12. Pisces (Feb 20 - March 20)

Snap out of the reverie! When you can stop dreaming,

Ruled by Neptune

A Feminine Negative Mutable Water Sign

Polar or opposite sign: Virgo

12.1. Color: Sea green and mauve

12.2. You as a man:

- You can be everything your woman wants you to be-or everything she does not want you to be. You are not weak. It's just that you may linger too long on a fading dream and miss the bright sunlight of success.
- It is difficult for you to let go of your dream, so you try to work out a nice compromise. Your fancy dream fits nicely into your daily routine. You will never be short of romance. Everything said and done, you expect technical loyalty. You are extremely sympathetic to friends, but there are times when your loneliness may kill you. These spells of depression cause the gloom to gather.

12.3. You as a woman:

- You have implicit faith that any man is invincible. You come out of the illusion soon enough, and what you actually see surprises you.
- You adapt beautifully and quietly to conflicting situations. The hardest lesson you have to learn is letting go of your timidity. You will give all of her heart to your children, you will love them all. You will sacrifice anything so your children can have what you were denied as a child. You may be too permissive. Administering discipline is difficult for you. You may be a wee bit extravagant, but you know how to keep a tight leash on your finances.

12.4. Your love sign

Your love sign is Sagittarius

- Whoever coined the term "dream lover" must have been thinking of you, for you often have your head in the clouds. Once back to Earth, you will pursue affairs of the heart slowly and carefully, your aesthetic sensibilities finely tuned. The mystery tour of romance with you can be most unpredictable, with hearts one day and flowers the other.

12.5. You in Relationships

- You exhibit an easygoing, go-with-the-flow quality, which is a boon to relationships. Your relationship with your lover is characterized by imagination, sensitivity and great emotions, and you sometimes wear your heart on your sleeve. Because of this, a lover who can protect you and make you feel safe is ideal. Giving is also paramount your mind, yet sometimes you run the risk of giving too much, thanks to your selfless nature.

12.6. One must Know the rules when dealing with Pisces

12.6.1. What you should do:

- Get used to the Piscean bringing the stray pup home from time to time. The Fish has a great concern for everything alive.
- Lend your Piscean a handkerchief, if he sheds copious tears at a tragic film. He will appreciate the sensitivity.
- With a Piscean, things need not be said all the time. Discover all the ways of communicating your love.
- Appreciate art, like the Piscean does.
- Make a commitment for life. You will not be disappointed!

12.6.2. What you should not do:

- Don't expect your Piscean to count pennies all the time. It is up to you to take care of the finances.
- Don't be surprised if your Piscean follows the serenade routine. The Fish loves to be old-fashioned.
- Don't attempt to draw the Pisces out of his dream world too quickly. For the Fish, dreaming and living go hand-in-hand.
- Don't put down your Piscean by accident. He might not show his hurt, but he is depressed, all the same.
- Don't subjugate their artistic impulses -- this is a truly creative Sign, and you may be standing in the way of their happiness.

12.7. Beautiful You

- Looking good is not a worry - since you never snap out of a reverie, a natural dreamy look is always yours. But there is more to you than the daydreams. You are flexible and wistful, but that does not make you wishy-washy! You have a resolute optimism, a nearly psychic intuition and a fertile imagination that allows you to appreciate the mysteries of life.
- When it comes to physical beauty, you want to set your own trends. This denotes your extremely independent spirit. If the color of the season is blue, you would wear pink, just to be different. It is this rebellion that makes people sit up and take notice. Perhaps you would like to look downwards, and pay attention to your feet. A pedicure is a definite indulgence. Lily-tinged scents keep you in a romantic mood.
- Your beauty comes from your open heart, your belief in the goodness of others, your sympathetic nature and the way you never shy away from saying how you feel.

12.8. Lucky Gem

You crave the exchange of ideas, conversation and chatter, and if all this takes place in a social situation, even better. Harmony is important to you, as you enjoy beautiful surroundings. The mediator in you likes bringing people together, but you also enjoy having a partner at your side. You are motivated to keep your partnership sailing smoothly, and it's also likely to be a pretty ride, since you enjoy being in a beautiful world.

12.13. Pisces Career Guide

Here are some occupations that a Pisces might consider:

- Actor
- Charity worker
- Chemist
- Designer
- Photographer
- Poet
- Secret agent
- Shoe repairer
- Shoemaker
- Social worker
- Spiritualist
- Window dresser

12.14. Money and you

- Complex and idealistic, you are the dreamer of the zodiac, forever searching for that something special, over the next rainbow. Even if you seem to have it all, you will never end your quest. Exploring your spirit, both mentally and physically, is a favorite pastime with you. Although you may appear careless, you are actually quite good with money. It's not important to you, though -- your dreams are. Many dreams, sadly, require money if they are to become a reality, so you are often compelled to achieve financial success for the greater good. You rarely worry about money, perhaps because you either inherit wealth or marry into it! It's safe to say you enjoy having money around, because it helps to fund your causes. You simply cannot say no when someone asks you for money, yet you never keep track of where the money went! Some things are forever hazy with you...
